Early Voting for the May 3 Joint Election Begins April 22

(HOUSTON, TX)—Harris County Clerk Teneshia Hudspeth announced that early voting for the May 3 Joint Election is one week away and emphasized this election's importance for the future of communities across the county.

"The May 3 ballot includes contests from various local political subdivisions, such as cities, colleges, school districts, and utility districts," said Clerk Hudspeth. "Voters will cast ballots in 46 districts, including single-member districts, with races and propositions specific to where voters are registered."

Harris County will operate over 20 early voting locations and more than 180 on Election Day. For a list of vote centers and their estimated wait times, visit www.HarrisVotes.com.

Dates and hours:

- Early Voting Dates: Tue., April 22 - Sat., April 26 (7 am - 7 pm)
Sun., April 27 (Noon - 7 pm)
Mon., April 28 - Tue., April 29 (7 am - 7pm)
- Election Day: Sat., May 3, 2025 (7 am - 7 pm)

Acceptable forms of ID when voting in person:

- Texas Driver's License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
- Texas Handgun License issued by DPS
- United States Military Identification Card containing the person's photograph
- United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person's photograph
