Harris County Clerk's Office and The Heritage Society Make it Easier for Couples to Say "I Do" on Valentine's Day

(Houston, TX) – This Valentine's Day, the Harris County Clerk's Office (HCCO) is collaborating with the Heritage Society to provide marriage licenses on-site for couples wanting to celebrate their nuptials at the historic Sam Houston Park located on 1100 Bagby Street. HCCO will issue marriage licenses 9 a.m. – 4 p.m., the fee is $74. For marriage license requirements, click here.

"We are excited to take part in The Heritage Society's Express Weddings one-stop shop promotion to help couples wanting to tie the knot on Valentine's Day," said Harris County Clerk Teneshia Hudspeth. "We encourage couples to take advantage of this opportunity on a special day that only comes around once a year."

Couples applying for their marriage license at the Heritage Society should allow approximately 15-20 minutes for the application process before scheduling their wedding ceremonies. A judge will also be on-site to waive the 72-hour waiting period.

"Following the marriage license application process, couples can choose to participate in an affordable express wedding package. We are offering a 5-minute ceremony at an outdoor venue for only $60 or a 10-minute ceremony for a church ceremony with live music for only $150," said The Heritage Society's Executive Director, Alison Bell. "Couples will be delighted with their lovely express wedding experience, but they need to book the venue of their choice in advance."
